

Larry G. Smith

Lawrence Gilbert Smith graduated from John Adams High School, received his undergraduate degree from California State University - Long Beach and his law degree from Cleveland Marshall Law School in 1972.

His public service career included terms as a General Trial Referee for the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court Domestic Relations Division, and as Chief Legal Counsel for the Ohio Department of Industrial Relations.

Governor George Voinovich appointed Smith to municipal court in 1995. Unfortunately, he was unsuccessful in the election for the balance of the term. Following his defeat at the polls, he returned to private practice.

Larry G. Smith served Cleveland Municipal Court from January 10, 1995 to December 17, 1995.
